CONNECT.

Something for everyone.

The Nevada Public Library is a place where our community comes together—no matter your age, interests, or income.

For Children, we build strong foundations through storytimes, early literacy programs, and hands-on play to prepare young learners for school success.

Teens can explore creativity, develop new skills, and find a welcoming space to belong through clubs, activities, and special events designed just for them.

Adults will discover opportunities to learn, relax, and connect through book clubs, workshops, and social programs like chess or crafting clubs.

At the Nevada Public Library, the connection begins with people.

Beyond collections and programs, our services are designed to meet everyday needs—access to information, help from knowledgeable staff, and spaces that bring people together.

The library isn't just a building—it's a hub for connection, creativity, and community life.
